

News Letter November 2016

The silly season is nearly upon us and we're all very excited about our upcoming Christmas Concerts. Please take a couple of minutes to read through the following details.

Christmas Concert 2nd of December

Please don't forget that if you're involved in the concert on the 2nd of December that it's at St Mary's Church in the centre of Stockport. The Church have very kindly agreed to let us use the building free of charge so we will not be selling tickets for this concert. We will have a collection at the end for the church. In a slight change in timings the concert will start at 7pm and as there are not many groups performing we will not have an interval. Please could performers arrive no later than 6.30pm. The Church Café will be open to sell refreshments for parents/carers and supporters before the concert begins.

Busking for Beechwood

Just to confirm that Junior Band and Wind Orchestra are performing on the the 3rd of December and Strings are performing on the 10th of December. Both sessions are at Sainsburys in Cheadle from 10am to 12pm. Thank you for giving up your Saturday morning for such a great cause. Even if you can only manage half an hour please come along. It's a great advert for our Music Centre groups to be seen out and about.

Christmas Concert 7th of December

As usual this concert will be held in the Hall at the Music Centre. Tickets will go on sale next week and will be £4 for adults (including a glass of wine and a mince pie) and £2 for children. Please can performers arrive at 6.15pm the concert will begin at 6.45pm.

Christmas Concert 12th of December

BUGs Upbeat and Beginner Wind Band will perform a short concert at the Music Centre at 5.30pm on the 12th of December. There will be no tickets on sale as entry will be free. Young Voices will perform their "mini sing" on the same day at their normal rehearsal time.

A polite reminder that if you have not paid this terms subs then can you please get them into the office ASAP. Thank you.

Merry Christmas!
