GOSPEL SINGING WORKSHOP

With Ken Burton

This is a fantastic opportunity for teachers to work with the internationally acclaimed Ken Burton. Ken will inspire you to sing as part of a Gospel workshop, introduce you to singing resources which you can use in your classroom or with your school choir, and model key strategies for inspiring young people to sing.

Ken Burton is a versatile arranger and composer. He has composed and arranged for television, radio, albums, concerts, and functions. Artists for whom Ken has arranged include Lesley Garrett and Willard White, Black Voices, and songs which have appeared on BBC Eastenders, Songs Of Praise, Choir Of The Year, On A Street In Jerusalem, BBC Breakfast Television, Prom At The Palace Jubilee Concert, and the list goes on.... Ken is principal conductor of the award-winning London Adventist Chorale. He is musical director and conductor of the Croydon SDA Gospel Choir, whose album The Very Best Of Gospel has received wide acclaim. Workshops, training sessions and seminars are all part of Ken's international itinerary and we are delighted that Ken is able to share his expertise and inspiration with us here in Manchester on 24th June 2017.

The workshop will take place in the Stoller Hall at Chetham's School of Music, Long Millgate, Manchester, M3 1SB

Please note that there is no parking available at the venue, but there are plenty of car parks in the vicinity. Chetham's is situated in the heart of Manchester, next to the Cathedral and almost opposite Victoria Station, so access by public transport is straightforward.

Cost: £25

Cheques payable to BMBC
